CREATING A HEALTHY OXFORDSHIRE

‘Come and have your say about future health services in Oxfordshire’

Friday 29 October 2010

10.00am – 3.30pm

At

The Oxford Centre

333 Banbury Road

Oxford

OX2 7PL

You are invited to attend an event to have your say about the future of health services in Oxfordshire.

NHS organisations and Oxfordshire County Council are working together to ensure we can provide high quality sustainable health and social care services in the future. Society is changing so health and social care systems need to change to respond to increasing demand, patient expectations and advances in technology and medicines.

The challenge is to ensure the highest quality care for all patients within the finite resources available. As a whole health and social care system we need to improve the quality and value for money of health services provided in Oxfordshire in a way that will keep the system in financial balance. This will involve redesigning the wide range of health care services currently provided throughout Oxfordshire and will see services delivered in new ways - with increased emphasis on self-care and healthy living and bringing care into the community.

The event will be held as a series of workshops. You will be given the opportunity to have your say about proposed changes and share ideas you have for developing services in the future.

Lunch and light refreshments will be available. Spaces are limited so if you would like to attend please register by: Emailing: Admin.commsPPI@oxfordshirepct.nhs.uk phoning: 01865 334637 or completing and returning the below slip:
